AFRICA
Rodríguez

PABLO
Larrubia
Sande

This boy can't stop thinking, walks hand in hand with his creativity and his desire to develop projects. Pablo is a loyal follower of his hometown, Pontevedra, where he has changed the perspective of his work interests towards something much more personal. His professional career begins with the base of sports sciences, advances through the methodology of dynamics based on non-formal education and ends in the beginning of a totally unexpected path in which he will surely end up learning a little from all the people he finds. We do not know the whole path of Pablo, but the projects we will develop with him will converge in a fine balance between commitment, efficiency and dedication.

What is Ticket2Europe?

Ticket2Europe is part of Shokkin Group International a network of youth organizations with the common goal of improving work in the field of youth in Europe. We build trust alliances to achieve a positive social impact and guarantee the highest quality standards in our projects.

Ticket2Europe is an organization created by youngsters for youngsters. Founded in early 2016 in Pontevedra, a small city in North-west Spain.

From the beginning, our work has been focused on spreading amongst youth different types of educational and professional opportunities all over Europe, such as scholarships, internships, job vacancies, grants, Erasmus+ projects and others. We are a team of passionate, inspired and motivated people with the common dream of spreading the word about the magic of international experiences and help youngsters discover and exploit their full potential.

For this, we put special effort on our online communication channels, through which we can reach and assist our target group. Locally, we organize educational and training events aiming at improving the competences of youngsters from different communities towards topics such as human rights, social inclusion, youth employability and entrepreneurship.

our MISSION...

is to open up new paths and development possibilities for young people by promoting international education and mobility and by supporting them on their search for future opportunities.

our VISION...

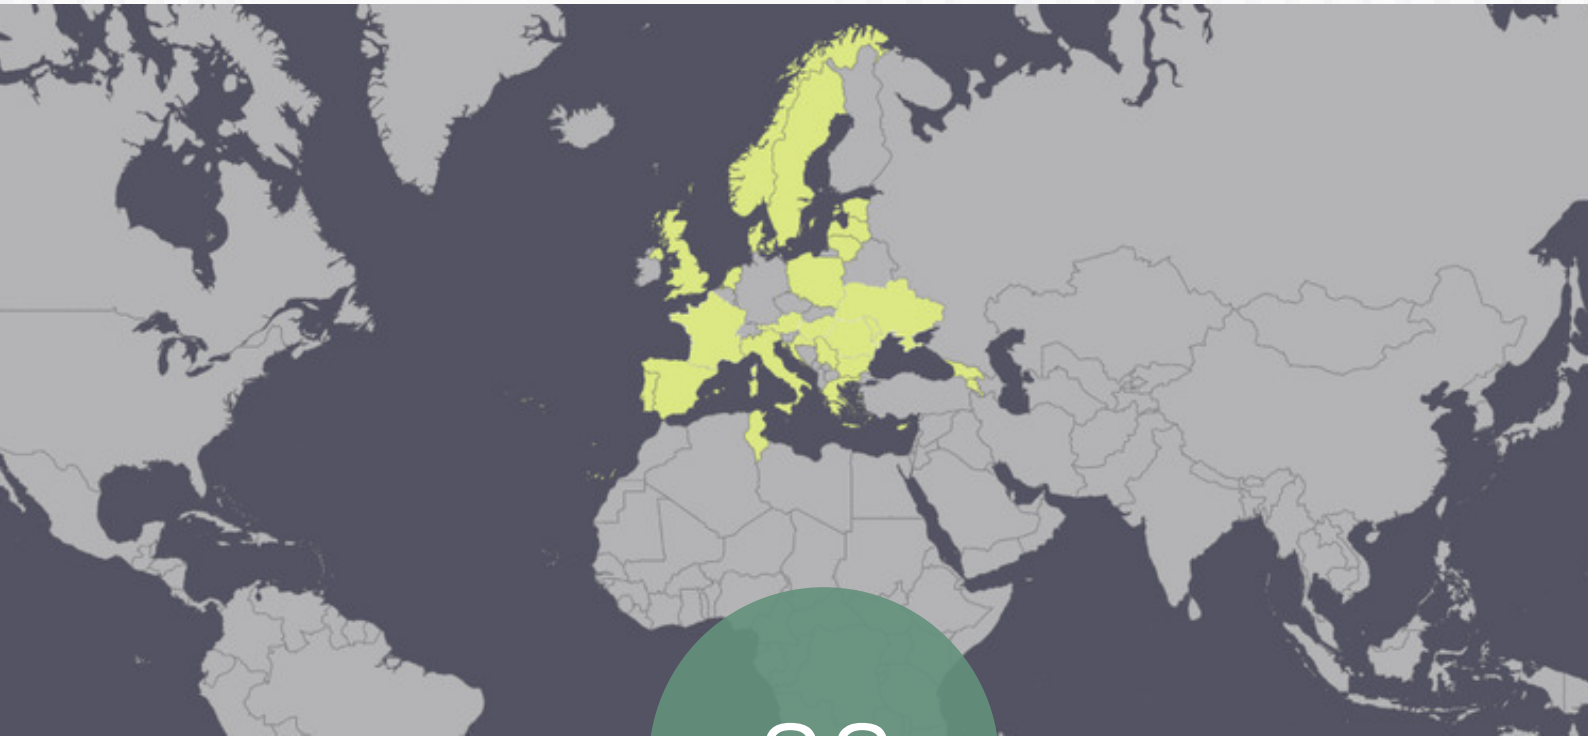

is to contribute to a new generation of empowered young people aware of their inner potential and the personal and professional development opportunities around them.
