MAIN AIM OF THE PROJECT:

To contribute to increasing the creativity and innovation of non-formal education activities with special disadvantaged groups such as refugees and improving the quality and impact of these activities.

OBJECTIVES OF THE PROJECT:

- To ensure that non-formal education methods produced for the thematic areas of active participation, empowerment, intercultural learning and employability are adapted according to their own realities, especially for refugee youth.
- Developing a methodology that will serve as a guide for youth workers to make similar method adaptations in different thematic areas.
- Increasing the capacity of youth workers and youth organizations active in European Youth Work to work with refugee youth.

TARGET GROUP(S) OF THE PROJECT:

26 youth workers from the field of immigrants and refugees and their institutions.

Developing the participant youth workers in 8 key competencies

Strengthening trainer knowledge, skills and attitudes towards the acquisition of 8 key competences by migrant and refugee youth

Developing awareness of evaluating these competencies in a context with their criteria and indicators
