Does it really matter ?

Training Course
Paris – France

21 – 31 Oct. 2022

Objectives of the T.C.

- 44 participants will explore gender equity and inequity in youth work realities; 44 participants will share non-formal learning activities and creative exercises on exploring gender, the roles of the socially assigned behavior patterns and emotions to feel about it.
- The participants will practice digital youth work tools such as making comics and improve their digital youth work competencies in order to fight against gender inequality.
- 1 public comics creation exhibition will be implemented in order to promote gender equality in the local community with and for young people with fewer opportunities.
- 1 digital booklet will be made including all digital youth work tools for promoting and supporting gender equality among young people.

Methodology

- Our methodology is based on an intercultural approach and non-formal education. We have planned a dedicated workshop (theory and practice) on non-formal education to help participants understand how this tool can be used and applied in their youth work reality.
- General methodology will reflect different learning styles/needs. Our methodology leads to equal and active participation of all participants. We aim to create a safe environment for learning and manage properly the flow and counter flow from the individual needs to the group needs to the topic to the individual and so on.
- To increase active participation of youth workers during the planned activities will be used different exercises combination of individual and team work, learner-centred ways, theoretical inputs and exercises

Aims of the T.C.

- Our aim is to ensure that skills and competences are more easily recognized across borders, in all sub-systems of education and trainings as well as in the labor market.
- Utilizing Youthpass we will ensure this particular training course will contribute to Europe 2020 objectives by developing skills and competences of young people across Europe and through raising the quality of youth work.
- The Youthpass that youth workers will receive at the end of the training course, will reflect on their personal non-formal and informal learning processes and will be a tool for the social recognition of youth work and better employability of youth workers in European countries.
