PROJECT INFO

PeaceWorks, together with our partner organisations, are offering a creative training course on Intersectional Solidarity for youth workers, consisting of two course weeks.

- The first course week (TC1) is held in Sweden the 1st to 10th of November 2023 by PeaceWorks.
- The second course week (TC2) will be held between the 28th of February to the 8th of March 2024, location TBA.

We look forward to your application!

I. TC1 - November

II. TC2 - February

THIS TRAINING COURSE IS FOR YOUTH WORKERS FROM THE CZECH REPUBLIC, FRANCE, GERMANY, IRELAND, ITALY, NORTH MACEDONIA, SPAIN AND SWEDEN.

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

PeaceWorks

OBJECTIVES

- INCREASE KNOWLEDGE ABOUT INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY AND INTERSECTIONALITY
- GENERATE A CREATIVE TOOL BOX FOR WORKING WITH SOCIAL CHANGE THROUGH INFORMAL LEARNING METHODS
- CREATE AN INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY NETWORK OF YOUTH WORKERS WITHOUT BORDERS

PRINCIPLES

- AN INTERSECTIONAL ANALYSIS OF GLOBAL (IN)JUSTICE
- DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES
- CRITICAL THINKING
- SYSTEMIC APPROACHES TO SOCIAL CHANGE
- INFORMAL AND EXPERIENCE-BASED LEARNING

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

PeaceWorks

METHODS

SYSTEMATIC APPROACH

- understanding that individuals are embedded in a social context tinged by power structures
- focusing on relationships, for example between "youth worker" and "target group"
- including reflexivity over one's relation to the target group

NON-FORMAL LEARNING

- learning from each others real working experiences
- visualising the issues which are handled through different tools
- combining theoretical learning with systemic work and theatre
- learning through creative tools

INTERSECTIONAL LEARNING

- understanding that power structures and oppression overlap and coexist
- exploring how to apply intersectional methods into social work and projects

THEATRE OF THE OPPRESSED

- a method developed in the 1970's in Brazil
- aims to deconstruct systemic social inequalities based on the experiences and perspectives of marginalised groups
- invites participants to physically join the stage, broadening their role from spectators to spect-actors.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

THE TRAINING IS FOR YOUTH WORKERS WHO WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT INTERSECTIONALITY AND GLOBAL (IN)JUSTICE THROUGH CREATIVE METHODS.
