About the Project

RIGHTS.online – Youth Rights in Digital Spaces is an Erasmus+ Training Course bringing together 18 youth workers from 6 European countries to explore how young people's rights can be protected and promoted in digital environments.

Our goal is simple: to make digital spaces more inclusive, safer and more empowering for every young person.

OUR KEY OBJECTIVES

DIGITAL RIGHTS

Promote privacy, safety, non-discrimination and participation online.

YOUTH EMPOWERMENT

Reach 60+ young people, with a focus on fewer-opportunity groups.

EDUCATIONAL INNOVATION

Co-create a Digital Youth Rights Toolkit through collaboration.

ONLINE AWARENESS

Produce 6 collaborative reels to raise awareness and spark dialogue.

The Training Experience

Learn. Connect. Create.

An interactive 7-day international learning journey with workshops, group discussions, creative exercises, practical simulations, peer learning and collective reflection.

From Learning to Action

The experience will focus on turning ideas into concrete results.

Our aim is not only to learn about digital rights, but to transform this knowledge into meaningful actions that continue beyond the training course.
